

Solidarity

An opportunity for those affected by their loved one's drinking/ drug use to meet together, connect and offer each other their solidarity and friendship.

The group offers a unique opportunity for family members to make connections with others in similar situations. In the first part of the meeting, people meet and listen to each other – sharing only if they wish to. In the second part the meeting is more informal where the group 'mingles' and chats over tea, coffee and biscuits.
